I am pleased to advise that some of the old favourites will be back again this year.

Eroni's Circus are pleased to be part of our show again. They are one of Australia's newest circuses and their aim is to bring back a bit of old world, vintage circus charm for modern day audiences. They draw inspiration from the classical circuses of yesteryear with beautiful glamorous costuming, lively original music, immaculately presented animals, traditional circus clowns, the smell of sawdust and the anticipation of what exciting act will come out next, through the red velvet curtain.....

Pockets the Clown will be entertaining the crowds and roaming the Showgrounds, FREE Stage Coach Rides will once again please our patrons along with a mass of entertainment on the Village Green & Oak Stages.

Courtesy of the Victoria Police Museum there will be vintage police cars and vintage costumes.

The SES will demonstrate road accident rescues, Whittlesea Township Motorcycle Club will be there with the kids showing off their skills and plenty more to come.

A feature of our Show and beyond is the Ambassador Competitions. Winners of the Whittlesea Show will go on to compete at the Central & Upper Goulburn Group Competition and if you win at this level you will go on to compete at a State Level. (Pictured are Adam Naylor and Shannon McLean our 2016 Ambassadors.)
