

WANDONG PUBLIC HALL

Finally we have been able to reopen, of course covid rules in place, sanitising and taking contact details a small price to pay for being able to use the hall again.

It was great to have the History group have their annual event at the hall, the Yoga group has restarted and ARTC are using the hall for community consultation regarding the works around the new bridge. They will be on site on the first and third Thursday of each month until April so if you have any questions, pop in or check the website as they may have some evening sessions in 2021.
